VENGEANCE IS SWIFT

Farmer Who Raped and Killed Little Girl Strung Up.

MOB OF MANY MEN.

There Were One Thousand of Them and They Saved the Cell Bars, Took Hamilton and Swung Him to a Pole.

Asotin, Wash., Aug. 5.—Despite the efforts of the little victim's father, sheriff Richards of Asotin county, who had sworn in twenty-five deputies to guard the brute, William Hamilton, a well to do farmer, the self-confessed outrager and brutal murderer of little Mabel Richards was forcibly taken from the Asotin county jail shortly after midnight Wednesday morning and lynched by a mob of over 1000 men, which had been congregating all day from all parts of Asotin county.

All night long the feeling that Hamilton should be strangled instantly grew in volume. There were those who thought the wretch should be tortured, but it was finally agreed that vengeance would be satisfied by blotting out the life of the beast.

About 12:15, twenty masked men, their faces concealed with handkerchiefs, marched in an orderly manner up the street toward the jail. When they got within sight, the guards thrown about the structure called upon them to halt. The answer of the masked men was to throw the guards to the ground. The keys were taken from the guards, the jail yard entered and finally entrance was effected into the jail proper. When the cell containing the guilty man was reached no key could be found to fit it. It was necessary to saw and hack at the bars until the door could be opened. Some of the mob thought hanging too good for him and wanted to torture the brute, but the original programme prevailed and it was decided to hang him. Some one produced a black mask like that used in a legal hanging and it was put over the head of Hamilton. It reached down to his shoulders. The rope was then produced, placed about his neck and then thrown over the guy wire, being long enough to reach within grasping distance of the lynchers. It was seized by powerful men, the body was lifted off the ground and suspended at a height of about four feet. The doomed wretch began to gasp for breath and his efforts were plainly discernible a distance of two blocks, so quiet was the crowd. After Hamilton's body had been held by the lynchers for a time, long enough to make certain he was dead, the rope was tied to the telegraph pole and the body left suspended.

FIRM FAILS.

Sharp & Bryan, Members of New York Stock Exchange, Go Under.

New York, Aug. 5.—The suspension of the firm of Sharp & Bryan is announced. Charles S. Bryan of the suspended firm was elected a member of the governing committee of the stock exchange at the last election. The firm was organized July 2, 1891, the individual members being W. W. Sharp and Charles S. Bryan, both board members. Office of the firm is at 25 Broad street and they are known as specialists in Virginia, Carolina, Chemical United States and Realty and Construction Company railway. The firm had mercantile agency rating of from $200,000 to $300,000. G. H. Sullivan of the law firm of Sullivan & Cromwell is made assignee of the suspended firm. It is announced the assignee will give out a statement as soon as it can be prepared.

Another Failure.

New York, Aug. 6.—Hurlbutt, Hatch & Co., stock exchange members, have failed.

FATAL EXPLOSION.

Top of Man's Head Blown Off and Woman Has a Jaw Broken.

Beaumont, Tex., Aug. 6.—By a boiler explosion on Spindletop the top of the head of a laborer named Lloyd was blown off. A man named Hickman was blown forty feet, but uninjured. A negro woman had a jaw broken. The boiler belonged to the Black Hawk company.

Friendly Reviews.

London, Aug. 5.—The papers have long and friendly interviews of the pope's career. They generally think the election augurs well for better relations between the Vatican and the quiral. Stress is laid on his attitude when the king and queen of Italy visited Venice last May and Sarto went in state in his gorgeous gondola to render them homage. It is deduced therefrom that Pius X. is likely to depart from Pope Leo's policy of rigorous confinement in the Vatican.

Criminal Assault Charge.

Austin, Aug. 6.—A negro named Theilan McCoy, aged thirty, was jailed, charged with criminal assault on Montana Allen, a negro girl, aged thirteen years. The crime is alleged to have been committed about two weeks ago near Decker, ten miles east. Negroes of that neighborhood are considerably worked up over the matter and the negro is closely guarded.

VOTE WAS UNANIMOUS

Cardinal Sarto Was Much Agitated Over His Election.

MAN OF POPULARITY.

In Appearance, Despite the Fact of His Sixty-Eight Years, the New Pope is Quite Handsome, and a Great Favorite Where Known.

Rome, Aug. 5.—The election of Cardinal Sarto, patriarch of Venice, as Pope Leo's successor, was unanimous. After Monday's ballots it was a foregone conclusion that he was the only cardinal sufficiently acceptable to all to secure the necessary two-thirds, which the laws of the church require. One of the cardinals said of the pope to the Associated Press correspondent, that he believed Pius X. would follow the broad lines of Leo's policy, although not likely to accentuate it. This voice the general feeling here, which is one of satisfaction. The new pontiff is a man of simple origin and although not a very prominent candidate, he had frequently been mentioned as one of the many cardinals who might be taken up as a compromise. In several respects he resembles his venerable predecessor, notably in his reputation for culture and piety. Having associated with no factions, this fact alone won him much favor with foreign cardinals, who were without a special candidate. Pius X. is described as a "country mouse, who could not possibly find his way about Rome."

Venetians who know the new pope well say that he will soon be as much beloved as pontiff as he was as the beloved patriarch of the poor of the Adriatic. In appearance Pius X. is a very handsome man. He has an erect figure, despite his sixty-eight years. His face greatly resembles that of the late Phillips Brooks, the eminent Boston divine.

Cardinal Cassata, as scrutiner, was reading the last vote. When forty-two votes had been recorded for the patriarch of Venice, the scrutiner arose, lifting his red zucchetto, saying: "Habemus pontificem." But from many sides cardinals cried out "continue."

As the vote approached fifty, however, the cardinals, as of one accord, surrounded the new pontiff and according to tradition demanded to know if he would accept pontificate?

Cardinal Sarto's lips trembled so that he could hardly articulate, but after a visible effort he said:

"This cup cannot pass me." There he paused, but the cardinals around him insisted that it was necessary for him to answer "yes" or "no." Thereupon he replied firmly: "I accept."

Cardinal Gibbons, speaking to a representative of the Associated Press, said that the election of Cardinal Sarto had produced the best impression in the entire sacred college, he being a man of such piety and culture and he was fitted to be the head of the church at the present time. Cardinal Gibbons hopes that the coronation of Pius X. will take place soon in order that all the cardinals may be able to assist.

Rome, Aug. 5.—Pius X. accompanied by Cardinals Satolli and San Miniato and Mr. Biggi, master of ceremonies, Tuesday afternoon went to the cell of the sick Cardinal Herrera, saying he wished the first act of his pontificate to be a compliment to a brother laid so low. Cardinal Herrera seemed transfused by such thoughtfulness and exclaimed: "Let me kiss your hand. Now, I shall be happy." The pope remained sometime in the cell, encouraged the sick man, and said he would pray for his recovery. He then gave him the apostolic blessing.

Rome, Aug. 5.—The new pope is one of eight children—two sons and six daughters. One of his sisters is a dressmaker, another is married to a Sacristian and peddler, a third married a wineshop keeper and the others are unmarried. The new pope is the seventh pope who has come from the region of Venice.

Acceptable to Germany.

Berlin, Aug. 5.—Replying to the question whether the election is acceptable to Germany, a representative of the foreign office answered: "Unqualifiedly so from an official view point. Sarto is a mild mannered man and has never been active politically." In other quarters it is remarked that Sarto is only an Italian cardinal whom the king of Italy received. His repeated visits to the king and his aversion to politics is regarded as an auspicious sign for the triple alliance. Germany also is fully satisfied that Sarto does not aspire to a restoration of the temporal power of the papacy.

Extra Editions.

Berlin, Aug. 5.—The election of the new pope was made known here at 1 o'clock through extra editions of newspapers, which were eagerly read.

Boll Weevil Experiments.

Austin, Aug. 6.—Experiments for destruction of boll weevil will be carried out at San Marcos Aug. 17, Taylor, Aug. 20; Bonham, Aug. 24.

OHIO DEMOCRATS.

The State Convention Will Meet at Columbus in Two Weeks.

Urbana, O., Aug. 5.—While Colonel William Jennings Bryan was the attraction here Wednesday at the Chautauqua assembly, there were other meetings of significance. The Democratic convention of Champaign county to nominate a local ticket and select delegates to the Democratic state convention at Columbus two weeks hence was called for the same date, and the presence of Mr. Bryan was also made the occasion for a conference of leaders, it having been announced as the occasion for making the Johnson programme for the state convention, but the invitations of local committees were not limited to any faction. Among those accepting the invitations were Mayor Johnson of Cleveland, Hon. John L. Zimmerman of Springfield and former Congressman John J. Lentz of Columbus. Friends of Johnson and Zimmerman have been contesting at county conventions for state delegates and both are claiming nomination for governor. While all of the distinguished visitors addressed the convention here, their work was done in private conferences. Johnson is a recognized candidate for the next Democratic nomination for president, and all movements for a governorship or for the senatorship this year are considered preliminary to the national contest next year. Friends of John R. McLean, proprietor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, a member of the Democratic national committee for Ohio, candidate for governor four years ago and delegate at large to the national Democratic convention for many years, is being classed among the Zimmerman supporters. McLean will not return from Europe until after the state convention. It is denied that McLean will be a candidate to succeed Mark Hanna as senator if the Democrats elect majority legislature next November. Mayor Samuel Jones of Toledo has been mentioned as the Johnson candidate for senator, but Jones insisted on being brought out independently and afterwards endorsed by Democrats. While that plan is not feasible, Mayor Jones is supporting Mayor Johnson in everything. It is stated that former Congressman Lentz will present Johnson's name to the convention for governor and if Johnson is nominated Lentz will be endorsed for senator.

MAY TAKE BRIDGE.

Secretary Root Has Sent a Communication on the Subject.

Washington, Aug. 5.—Secretary Root has addressed a communication to the Merchants' Bridge company, the owners of the large bridge across the Mississippi river at St. Louis, asking the company to show cause why the United States should not take possession of the bridge under statute which provided for its construction. Under the law the secretary of war can take possession of the bridge without legal proceedings of any kind if any of three things happens, namely: If the bridge company consolidates with any other bridge company; if the company pools its earnings with any other company; if the same officers of any other company become officers of the Merchants' Bridge company. In the allegations presented to the secretary of war it is declared that leases made by the Merchants' Bridge company constitute a consolidation with another company.

KILLING CHARGED.

Crime Alleged to Have Happened Two Years Ago.

Hot Springs, Ark., Aug. 5.—D. M. Claiborne was arrested upon a warrant charging him with the killing of Abner Gaines here about two years ago. The warrant was sworn to by William Gaines of Palo Pinto, Tex., a brother of the dead man. The dead body of Abner Gaines was discovered in his room adjoining that of his wife. A bloody knife was found by his side. At the inquest which followed, a verdict of suicide was returned.

A warrant was also sworn out for the arrest of Mrs. Lyda Gaines, widow of Abner Gaines. She is reported quite ill in Little Rock. Claiborne has been placed under a bond for $1000 for his appearance Saturday. Abner Gaines, deceased, left a handsome estate, which is now being controlled by his widow in the interest of his children.

Will Discuss Labor.

Chicago, Aug. 5.—Announcement has been made by Ralph M. At that time a convention will be held for the purpose of inaugurating a movement in the west to bring capital and labor into closer relationship.

TESTIMONY OF DOCTOR

Physician Who Attended Marcum Now on the Stand.

SAW JETT ON STREET.

His Evidence Contradicts That of Other Parties, Who Testified to Seeing Defendant Enter Courthouse Just Before the Shooting.

Cynthiana, Ky., Aug. 5.—In the Jett case Tuesday Dr. J. M. Kash testified to attending the dying man as he lay in front of the court house. He testified that a few minutes before the killing of Marcum he saw Curtis Jett in front of Hargis Bros.'s store, immediately across the street from the court house, talking to Asbury Spicer and Tish Noble. This contradicted the testimony of at least fifteen witnesses who testified for the prosecution to seeing Jett go into the side door of the court house a minute before the shooting.

On cross-examination he did not remember seeing any one else at the time of the killing about the court house. It was claimed by cross-examiners that he contradicted his testimony on the former trial at Jackson six weeks ago.

John Smith and John Werner testified at length contradicting Mrs. Mary Johnson and Edward Marcum, who said that they had seen Smith and Abner a year before the killing of Marcum in a stone quarry near Marcum's home, armed, with other men.

Lewis Hayec, the Jackson boarding house keeper, testified that Wesner, Abner Smith and Thomas White boarded with him during the term of court in June, 1902, but he did not remember whether they were up as early in the morning as the hour fixed by the prosecution, when armed men prevented Marcum from leaving his home.

Dodge Banks and Clarence Haddon were called to corroborate Jett's statement as to his location when Marcum was shot. The rigid cross-examination of Banks was a feature of the morning session. Dr. Offutt and W. H. Blanton testified, contradicting Mrs. Johnson's story about waylaying Marcum at a stone quarry. Joe Bruner testified that Ewen had told him that he did not recognize Jett as the man who killed Marcum.

MEXICAN BOLL WEEVIL.

Has Made Its Appearance at Louisiana Experimental Station.

New Orleans, Aug. 5.—The Mexican boll weevil has made its appearance at the experimental station near Audobon Park, where two acres are under cultivation. For several days brokers who have been watching the growth of the cotton have had suspicions that it was infested with the weevil in spite of opinions to the contrary from several authorities. The habits and the characteristics of the weevil were studied up and by the aid of Dr. Grayville was secured. He secured many plants and many embryo insects which he developed. Tuesday morning on the floor of the cotton exchange he exhibited a bottle full of insects that every one unhesitatingly pronounced the real Mexican weevil that has proved to be such a scourge in portions of Texas.

Conductor Takes His Life.

Shreveport, La., Aug. 5.—The dead body of Charles J. Bainer, a railroad conductor, was found lying in the dining room of his home in West Shreveport. A gaping hole in his left breast over the heart and an empty revolver by his side told the story of the man's death.

Nearly Roasted Alive.

RECEIVED CARDINALS.

They Filed Past Pope and Kissed His Hand and Foot.

Rome, Aug. 5.—Pope Pius X. rose at 5:30 Wednesday morning, saying he did not wish to change his habit. He slept in the apartment occupied by Cardinal Oreglia during the interregnum, which is situated on the first floor of the Vatican. No decision has yet been taken concerning the pontiff's ultimate quarters, but it is already said he desires them to be extremely modest. At 7:15 the pope said mass, assisted only by Mgr. Bressan, his confessor. He afterward took breakfast, which consisted only of coffee, milk and a roll. Then as he stood against the window, from which he caught a glimpse of the gardens of the Vatican, the pontiff exclaimed: "My first pleasure will be when I can spare a moment to explore gardens which now confine my little world. Heigho, how shall I get on without my long country tramps! How I shall miss them, and my sea!"

Pope Pius wished to see personally the almost innumerable telegrams of congratulation received, giving instructions for answers to those for which he cared most and looked at the copies, changing here and there a word. Then he prepared for the state reception of cardinals.

The Sistine chapel, which during the night had been cleared of its temporary furniture and used for ballota, is assuming its normal aspect.

The third and last obedience of sacred college was consummated with the same ceremonial as before in the Sistine chapel, the pope being in full pontifical robes and palpably restored in mind and nerves by a night's rest. Cardinals filed before him and kissed his hand and foot, all smiling and apparently in a perfectly contented frame of mind. They themselves in turn received a hearty embrace from Pius X. The ceremony ended about noon. Both going to and going from the Sistine chapel when he passed through the Raphael Loggia and Duca hall the pope refused to be carried in the sedia gestatoria which, however, followed him. After taking a few steps he turned to Mgr. Bisleti and said: "I shall never voluntarily get into that box." The Te Deum was sung in the Sistine chapel in honor of the election of the new pope, all cardinals being present except Herrero, who is still ill in his cell, although somewhat better than Tuesday.

The pope confirmed in their posts as secretary chamberlains Mgrs. Zichy, Scapinelli, Misciatelli and Sanse de Sempere and confirmed Marquis Serlupi as master of the horse and Mgr. Silli as dean of the grooms. He appointed Mgr. Galli secretary of Latin letters, to replace Mgr. Tarizal, who is ill, and also Mgr. Sardi as secretary for briefs to the princes, to replace Mgr. Volpini.

CROWNED SUNDAY.

This Is Done in Deference to Desires of Foreign Cardinals.

Rome, Aug. 5.—The new pope confirmed Cardinal Oreglia as camerlingo. Cardinal Agliardi will probably be secretary of state.

The pope, yielding to the pressure exercised by foreign cardinals, who are desirous of returning to their respective countries as soon as possible, decided to have the coronation take place next Sunday.

The pope received Prince Masino, head of the papal section of the Roman aristocracy, who was accompanied by his daughter-in-law, Princess Beatrice, daughter of Don Carlos. The pontiff seemed especially glad to see her, saying: "We are from the same town; your father is my friend and I have not forgotten his amiability in coming to see me off at the station when I left for the conclave, little imagining that I should never see my beloved canals again. I hope your royal father will soon come to our court."

COUPLE MURDERED.

Supposed to Have Been Act of Vengeance of Wildcats.

Chattanooga, Aug. 5.—A special to the News from Winchester, Tenn., says Simon Booker and wife, who resided in a small cabin on the mountain near Thunderstruck Hollow, in the Sixteenth district, Franklin county, were murdered and the torch applied to their home. Tragedy is attributed to the raiding of a wildcat distillery located near their place during the month of June. Booker and his wife were accused by wildcaters of betraying them to revenue officers.

Girl Suicides.

New York, Aug. 6.—Mabel Main, twenty-four years old, a student at a training school for nurses here, has committed suicide because of the alleged objection of her parents to a contemplated appearance on the stage. She is said to have been the daughter of a banker in Falmouth, Jamaica, and showed considerable dramatic talent.

AUSTRIA SURPRISED.

Satisfaction, and Even Pleasure, Are Manifested Over Election.

Vienna, Aug. 5.—The election of Cardinal Sarto as pope has occasioned some surprise here, his name being scarcely mentioned among the possible successors of Pope Leo. In official circles satisfaction, and even pleasure, is expressed at the result of the conclave. Pius X. enjoys the reputation of being a moderate man of a very conciliatory character, and unlikely to take any particularly decided line politically, or to do anything tending to disturb the relations of the Vatican with foreign governments.

Ascribed to Gibbons.

Berlin, Aug. 5.—A dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from Rome asserts that Cardinal Gibbons played the chief part in frustrating the election of Cardinal Rampolla.

SCHWAB RESIGNS.

New York, Aug. 5.—The resignation of Charles M. Schwab as president of the United States Steel Corporation was tendered and accepted by the board of directors Tuesday. William E. Cory was unanimously elected his successor. Mr. Schwab's resignation was no surprise in financial circles, where it had for some time been fore-shadowed. The new president was for some years one of Andrew Carnegie's ablest lieutenants, and is now president of the Carnegie Steel company, one of the subsidiary concerns of the United States Steel Corporation.

AS TO FINANCES.

Reporter and Treasurer of Knights of Honor Make Reports.

Dallas, Aug. 5.—In the Knights of Honor convention in the report of Grand Reporter R. W. Finley a summary of the receipts and disbursements during the two years of his term of office were shown. The total receipts in the period were $25,292.56, and the disbursements $20,911.92. The net resources in the treasury June 20, 1903, were shown to be $4891.74.

The report of John B. Wolf of Cameron, grand treasurer, showed $3012.41 cash on hand June 30, 1901, and $22,280.15 received during the two years ending June 30, 1903, making a total of $26,292.56.

The disbursements for the same period were shown to be $20,911.92, leaving a balance of $4188.64 to the general fund on June 30, 1903, and $194 to the credit of the general lodge extension fund, a total of $4380.64.

NEW BOOKS.

Texas School Children Will Have to Purchase Twenty-Three.

Austin, Aug. 5.—The state textbook board adopted twenty-three books. In the adoption of the books there were several innovations, the introduction of a primer, a mental arithmetic, a beginner's history of the United States, a physical geography and a book on composition work. In other words, there were eighteen books under the former adoption, exclusive of copy books.

The five new books cost $2.22. The new contracts change the contractors for the first four readers, but the fifth reader is the same with the reduction in price of thirteen cents for each book.

The spellers are entirely changed, the American Book company, represented by Judge W. P. McLean, securing the modern speller at an advance of 3 cents over the presents peller.

DEATH OF CURRY.

Victim of Compressed Air Joke Dies at Hospital.

San Antonio, Aug. 5.—J. B. Curry, the Sunset roundhouse employee, who was fatally injured by an inflation of compressed air from a Southern Pacific engine, died at the Santa Rosa hospital Tuesday morning. He was thirty years of age and leaves a wife and two young children.

H. M. Nichols, a fellow employee, who is alleged to have stolen behind Curry with the nozzle from the air tank and inflicted the terrible injury as a practical joke, has been charged with the murder of the deceased.

FIENDISH CRIME.

Negro Attempts to Criminally Assault a Blind Woman.

Denison, Tex., Aug. 5.—Tuesday evening about 7:30 an unknown negro attempted an outrage on Mrs. Blackmon, a blind woman, and the wife of a woodchopper in a camp near Ray, West Denison. She screamed and the negro ran and is now in hiding in a dense thicket near the scene of the attempted assault. Sheriff Russell of Sherman is here with several deputies, and with Denison officers and a large crowd surrounded the thicket. The negro's capture is almost certain.

A FOREIGN PRODUCT.

America Has Not Yet Developed the "Perfect Spendthrift."

Uneconomical and extravagant as we are, we have not yet developed the "perfect spendthrift" as he is to be found on the other side of the Atlantic. It seems at times as if he must be a product of an older, a more "effete" civilization. The mah, either young or old, who runs through a large fortune quickly is a rarity with us. High as our standard of living and of the ordinary expense of living is, our standard of what might be called prodigate extravagance is by no means so high. Of course pretty large sums are wasted in various forms of dissipation here as elsewhere. But that is not the point. To take the single item of gambling, how often do we hear of a man's being ruined by it here? No doubt we hear stories of tremendous sums lost and won, but such sums do not seem either "to make or to break" anybody. For men whose incomes are reckoned by the hundreds of thousands or millions to play hundred dollar poker is no great recklessness. But how often do we see young men of the small salaried sort punting $1,000 or $2,000 at a time at baccarat, as you can any day in France? We have not the instinct to save and scrape for eleven months in the year and then shell out all our savings in a fortnight.

I once met in France a young man of old provincial family, Legitimist to the backbone, proud and very poor. He was about twenty-one, modest, thoroughly "correct," as good, innocent a young fellow as one would care to meet, the sort of young man who seems to have been overlooked and left out in the cold by French fiction, though by no means a great rarity in French real life. I happened to ask him one day if he ever played cards. He said no, he did not care for that sort of thing, and besides his means would not permit it. "I never go into a gambling saloon," said he, "or into the cardroom of a club. Sometimes I may join in a little game of poker among friends just to pass the time, but only a very small game, never more than a louis limit." A louis limit! I wonder what clubman (out of the millionaire class) in New York, Boston, Philadelphia or any of our larger eastern cities would call four dollar poker a "very small" game! —Scribner's.

FLOWER AND TREE.

Powdered sulphur applied daily is a good remedy for mildew on rosebushes.

Plants may be grown in comparatively small pots by applying a weak solution of guano.

Oregon is said to have a white sunflower which grows wild in some localities in the valleys of the Blue mountains.

Cress is the quickest growing of plants. Under perfect conditions it will flower and seed within eight days of planting.

A northern aspect for the orchard gives a colder and later soil and retards the blossoming until a later period, thus lessening the danger from spring frosts.

If for no other reason than its habit of late blooming, the salvia deserves a place in every garden. Nothing can be more splendid than a well grown bed of salvia in early autumn.

The finest house plants grow where the temperature does not get above 70 degrees nor lower than 60 degrees. But most of us would think we were freezing to death in rooms of the best temperature for plants, 65 degrees.

Gracefully Turned.

Disraeli's resourceful wit enabled him to play the courtier at all times and to give—as in an instance which the London Daily Chronicle recalls—a complimentary turn even to satire.

Soon after he had received his title and had become the Earl of Beaconsfield an old peer greeted the new peer one day and asked him how he felt. Beaconsfield was just walking away from the house of lords, but his thought seems to have been in the house of commons, for he said:

"I feel as if I were dead and buried."

The old peer looked aghast.

"And," Beaconsfield continued, with scarcely a pause, "and in the land of the blessed."

The old peer smiled again and loved Beaconsfield forever after.

Colors of Children's Eyes.

It has been conclusively proved that women have a larger proportion of brown eyes than men. If in parents the mother has brown eyes and the father blue, the chances are eighty-eight to twelve that the girls of the family will be brown eyed, the percentage in favor of the boys having blue eyes being seventy-two to twenty-eight. If the parents have eyes of like color, the chances in favor of the children, both male and female, having eyes of the same color are ninety-two to eight.

Horatio—Didn't even get what I deserved.

Mrs. Newly Wed (from above)—Bridget, put the lemons on the ice so they won't get sour.

Bridget (to herself)—Is it anny wonder that I asks dooble pay fer serving the loikes of that?—Exchange.

Not the Same.

Tess—He said I looked handsome in that gown, didn't he?

Jess—Not exactly. He said that gown looked handsome on you.—Exchange.
